

U.S. History Test

The Era of Good Feelings and the Age of Jackson

Instructions: Answer Four of the following.

1. Describe the American System and the three things necessary to sustain it.
2. Why was the Presidency of James Monroe called the Era of Good Feelings? Describe three of the following which occurred during the Era of Good Feelings.
 - a. McCulloch v. Maryland and Gibbons v. Ogden
 - b. Adams-Onis Treaty
 - c. Missouri Compromise
 - d. Monroe Doctrine
 - e. Eli Whitney
3. Describe the Elections of 1824 and 1828 and the Presidency of John Quincy Adams.
4. Describe the three major events that occurred during Andrew Jackson's Presidency.
 - a. The Indian Crisis
 - b. The States' Rights (Tariff) Crisis
 - c. The Bank Crisis
5. Describe the Presidencies of Jackson's successors.
 - a. Martin Van Buren
 - b. William Henry Harrison
 - c. John Tyler